Safety Release

What would happen if someone was injured at a club event? Would the club, or worse, the person in charge of the event be responsible?

We decided to ask a lawyer. He advised, for the protection of all club members, that parents must be responsible for the safety and behavior of their own child, and members should sign an acknowledgement of that statement. We have included this in our bylaws.

In order to participate in the club and to protect yourself and friends, member must sign this acknowledgement and return it to the Vice President. Thank you

Release
